STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

This is a suit in equity arising within the Treaty of 1787 Marrakech ARTICLE XXI. 1789 constitution for the united states of america in congress assembled, ARTICLE III §2. §§1., and ARTICLE VI. §1., §2., and §3; the Judiciary Act of 1789 1 stat 73 §9. and §11; and the Treaty with Tunis 1824 ARTICLE XII., the rights of your orator, as a private Moor americas aboriginal ohioan national, and subject of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire, are of those classes which said treaties, constitution, and act, either confers or has taken under their protection, without such obligation, your orator’s rights are in jeopardy of being destroyed, where no adequate remedy for their enforcement is provided by the forms and proceeding of a purely legal nature. The same necessity invokes and justifies, in the cases to which its remedies can be applied, that jurisdiction in equity vested by said treaties, constitution, and act, and which cannot be affected by the legislation of the emergency provisional congress by a committee of the states, the states, nor any agencies subject to the law of the district of columbia. This court has limited jurisdiction and the complainant does hereby grant all in personal and subject matter jurisdiction to this court, under exclusive equity jurisdiction, conferred by Treaty of 1787 Marrakech ARTICLE III §2. §§1., and ARTICLE VI. §1., §2. and §; the Judiciary Act of 1789 1 stat 73 §9. and §11; and the Treaty of Tunis 1824 ARTICLE XII., to the exclusion of all other modes and proceedings, to adjudge this matter. In tender of sufficient consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your orator is remediless in the premises at and by the direct and strict rules of the common law, and cannot have adequate relief save only in a Court of Equity, where equal Justice can be rendered and where matters of this and a similar nature are properly cognizable and relievable. Citing Chancellor Henry R. Gibson. I convey to this cause the basis of the inherent exclusive equitable jurisdiction that your Honor shall dispense:

The Chancery or Equity Court should hear:

1. All suits against married women and minors about their estates, not cognizable at law.
2. All suits resulting from trusts, express, constructive, and resulting.
3. All suits for the specific performance of contracts.
4. All suits for subrogation and substitution.
5. All suits where an injunction is a substantial part of the relief sought.
6. All other suits where the defendant has done, or is doing, or is threatening to do, some inequitable act to the injury of the complainant, and there is no adequate remedy therefore in any other court.

Every homestead is sacred, especially when it belong to our ancestors, and has been long in our possession. We were made 'of its dust; our fathers and mothers sleep in its bosom; and we expect to repose by their side. Our dearest memories cluster about it; its our father's kingdom, and the home of our youth where we were princes. To sell it away from us is like a sacrilege, and to turn us out of possession is like driving us out of our Eden and forcing us forever from our holy land. And all this is true, whether the home be a cabin on a mountain side, a cottage in a valley, or a palatial mansion in the midst of a princely estate; for home is home, and there is no place on earth so dear to the human heart, be that home humble place be it grand for after all it is our home. The homestead laws, like the Cherubim of Eden, protect the home in very many cases. (Henry R. Gibson, Chancellor) The acquisition of the property or taking other advantage of a person by the betrayal of his confidence. Such an act is a sort of treason against good faith and shocks the conscience of all mankind. (Henry R. Gibson)

This is the first application for an injunction in this cause.

Statement OF the Cause

The Primary subject matter at issue in your orator's (special cause) as a private Moor, americas aboriginal ohioan national, and subject of the Al Moron, Shereefian Empire, "but not a citizen of the united states for the district of columbia, nor a citizen of the united states of america in congress assembled," your orator's special and particular status is uncontroverted. It "cannot" be altered by any of the several states, the united states for the district of columbia, or the united states of america in congress assembled contracts or statues, be it expressed or implied, public or private; and therefore my special and particular status as a private Moor subject "cannot" be reduced to an inferior grade of volunteer surety "U.S. citizenship" status by any man, state, or instrumentality. Your orator's substantive core private equitable rights to due process and equal justice being rendered cannot be seen by a court proceeding under any mode other than the exclusive Equity jurisdiction, as are all at law courts today whether state or federal, as a result of section 17 of the Trading with the Enemy Act of October 6, 1917, which was made applicable to "persons within the United States," by way of said Emergency Banking

Relief Act of 1933 without violation thereof; which in such case your Orator is by legal corruption, subjected to the laws of the united states of america in congress assembled, or the united states for america for the district of columbia, which are inconsistent with and repugnant to our reciprocal treaties and therefore he content be “commingled” with any public U.S. citizens or nationals of a designated enemy country as defined in and subject to your Emergency Banking Relief Act of 1933 without violation thereof; which in such case your orator is by legal corruption subjected to the laws of the united states of america in congress assembled, or the united states for the district of columbia, which are inconsistent with and repugnant to our reciprocal treaties and therefore cannot be “commingled” with any public U.S. citizen s or nationals of a designated enemy country as defined in and subject to your Emergency Banking Relief Act of March 9, 1933. Due to said exigent circumstances your orator is without adequate, complete, and certain remedy at law, sufficient to meet all the demand of Justice owed and due to me by virtue of my private status as a Moor subject of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire. Your orator requires that this Honorable court issue a private declaratory decree acknowledging that your orator is “in fact,” a private Moor, americas aboriginal ohioan national, and subject to the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire, “but not a citizen of the united states for the district of columbia, nr a citizen of the united states of america in congress assembled,” and that he shall be treated as friendly, amicus curiae, and respected and esteemed as that of the most favored Nation. “Equity aids the vigilant, not those who slumber on their rights.” (See Exhibits Denial of Assumptions and Presumption, and Declaration of Intention, Treaty of Algiers 1795 ARTICLE XIII.)

STATEMENT OF CAUSE

Your orator’s special cause is for the termination of any guardian/ward relation including voluntary relinquishing any parental rights making any presumed administration of my estate absolute void; have decedent’s legal estate restored to your orator as the sole exclusive heir and beneficiary of said decedent’s legal estate person; and grant relief and exoneration from all liabilities of the defendant Jonah Burton Addis a registered organization name cuyahoga county, ohio is a decedent’s legal (Estate”).

The decedent's legal estate is a derivative of the sacred trust that was granted to your orator by his mother and father as grantor(s). It was intended for me as grantee absolute and sole beneficiary of the body, the name, and the sum of all their attachments, including, but not limited to, all interest, lands, assets, rents, credits, emitted, monies borrowed, leases, derivatives, profits, proceeds, reserves, stores, and titles thereof for his private enjoyment, use, possession, and benefit. Your orator has acknowledged and accepted all that my ancestors has intended for me. Your orator's equitable claims are uncontroverted. Your orator is beneficial owner of the Estate, and all property attachments including but not limited to, lands, goods, and chattels, rights and credits, his person, and his wife and minor offspring, and his right wot work, and to sell and acquire property, and engage in any lawful business, and his and their reputation, health and capacity to labor, and his and their right to enjoy the senses of sight, smell, hearing and taste, and his and their right of speech and locomotion, and his and their right to enjoy their scene of moral property when normal, to live by his labor and property, and cannot be presumed to have parted with even any one of them without receiving or expecting an equivalent in value. Hence, whenever one person has obtained either labor or property, and cannot be presumed to have parted with even any one of them without receiving or expecting an equivalent in value. Hence, whenever one person has obtained either the labor or property of your orator, he should pay or account therefore, unless he can prove it was a gift by your orator; your orator is interested in the settlement, and has been aggrieved, by error, omissions and false credits therein; and that a just and equitable settlement will benefit him. Your orator's substantive equitable rights to own property and to due process and equal Justice being rendered are not cognizable at law, much less at martial due process and rely exclusively on the recognition and enforcement of purely equitable rights.

Your orator states that due to the said exigent circumstances he is without adequate, complete, and certain remedy at law, sufficient to meet all the demands of justice, owned and due to him, by virtue of his private status as a Moor subject of the Al Moroc Shereefian Empire, and that without complete justice being administered by his Honorable court, your orator may be subject to further unjust and irreparable hard and destruction of his treaty protected rights and property. "Equity abhors a forfeiture."

STATEMENT OF CAUSE

The primary subject matter issue of your orator's speciali causa (special cause), as an "implied equitable surety," he makes his original claim against defendant(s) seeking suitable relief from the burden caused by (i) trespass upon your orators inherent right to equal Justice being rendered towards him concerning any dispute (ii) exoneration of all liability and obligations imputed to your orator either by way of operation of law, mistake, error or accident, by presumption, under legal compulsion, threat and duress, or fraudulent concealment by defendants(s) (iii) subrogation of all rights, title and interest of the united states of America, and the united states for the district of columbia (hereafter "creditors") against the complainant with respect to any irrevocable obligation arising from a quasi-trust relationship conducted by said the district of columbia military legal proceedings.

Your orator states that due to said exigent circumstances I am without adequate, complete, and certain remedy at law, sufficient to meet all the demands of Justice owed and due to me by virtue of his private status as a Moor subject of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire, and that as the sole exclusive heir to the Estate, and that without complete justice being administered by this Honorable court, your orator may be subject to unjust and irreparable harm and destruction of his treaty protected rights and property.

STATEMENT OF CAUSE

The complainant is the beneficial party entitled to a settlement and desires a bill for an accounting for the funds or other property in which the complainant has an interest, and to pay over whatever may be due or belong to him. "A good and faithful servant shall make a full accounting, to the owner, of the talents he was granted"

The complaint has though his internet power of appointment, appointed each defendant, having transferred, on special deposit, valuable and sufficient consideration, for the fiduciary appointment, as well as, fully granting, conveying, and delivering legal title in the form of a Deed of Conveyance to each defendant. To be held in the private by said defendant(s) for the private enjoyment, use, possession, and benefit of the complainant. Each defendant was noticed of the complainant's manifest intent, purpose, to execute actual and constructive grant and conveyance on the special deposit the trust res to demand for specific performance by due particularity, to produce a full accounting, list of all real, personal, and equitable assets or other property in which the complainant has an interest; to pay over whatever may be due or belong to him, or the balance due complainant on a fair accounting; release any and all collateral and return all remaining trust res, concerning said debts due to my estate; and release any and all collateral, and return any remaining trust res, to your orator and the beneficial party entitled, in consequence of such relations various sums of money or other property of the complainant went, or should have gone, into the possession, or under the control, of the defendant, giving items, dates, values, and circumstances. The defendant has neither Affirmed or Denied the fiduciary relation, or rendered an account of such money and property and profits thereof; or, if he render any, that it was imperfect and incorrect, balance due complainant on a fair accounting; that complainant refused to accept it in any respect, and so notified the defendant; Your orator prays for an account to be taken by the Clerk and Master and for a decrees for the amount found due. If the defendant has any sureties bound for his good conduct, they should be made defendant(s), and their suretyship alleged in the body of the bill be equitably attached. "One show seeks equity must do equity."

NOTICE OF CONFLICT AND VARIANCE OF LAW

The remedies sought are of a purely equitable nature, and the complaint elects to apply for equitable relief and notices that it is established principle that when there is a conflict between the rules of law and the rules of equity, over the same subject matter, the rules of equity shall prevail. Further, the complainant states that no adequate, sufficient, or speedy remedy at law can provide complete justice. Your orator therefore attaches a "Table of Authorities" that are based upon well-established inherent principles and equity jurisprudence. the Maxims in support of your orator's special causes attached herewith by reference and attached hereto in Annex. Further the complainant does notice that this cause accordance with the soul, intent and purpose of the rules of the supreme court of the united states "former rules" number 48, and that Respondents are believed to be governed exclusively in accordance with the intent of Rule 47 of the same. Sound by what has been decided, and do not disturb what is settled.
